Is the proliferation of churches Christs end-time operation to prepare the church for His return, or Satans ingenious plan to defile the bride The battle for the soul of the earth was reignited when the second Adam, (Christ) returned to take back the mandate Satan stole from Adam in the Garden of Eden. However, Christ sealed the final victory with His resurrection to Satans embarrassment and shame. As Christ went to glory to declare the victory to His Father, and also to prepare a place for His virgin bride, with whom together would fulfill the mandate, Satan sneaked in, just as he did in the Garden, and deployed the final attack to stop Christs reign. His target again, is the woman, the bride of Adam, and the prophetic bride of Christ, the Church of the living God. In The Mystery of the Two Churches, the author amplifies the prophetic representation of the woman as the great mystery of Christ, also of Satan, and reveals Satans counterfeit bride in full glare, and yet unrecognized.
